FOREWORD

Many will use this handbook and use it frequently. We hope this information is arranged in such a way that will facilitate its use.

We thank all of you who provided the statistical data and other material. If you have suggestions for the improvement of this publication, we would be happy to hear from you.

Wm. L. Friesen
Conference Treasurer and Office Manager

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MENNONITE CHURCH is an entity composed of member congregations in North and South America. It is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas in the U.S.A. Churches have united to form a Conference of Mennonites in Canada and several district conferences in the United States based largely on geographical location.

The delegate body which meets triennially is elected by individual churches on the basis of one delegate per thirty members. At the triennium session delegates elect three officers: president, vice-president, and secretary. The delegate body also elects members to program commissions and a division of administration. These commissions and division meet annually in what is referred to as a Council of Boards. It is at these sessions that action programs are planned and the annual financial budget is adopted.

Two subsidiary corporations, Church Extension Services and Mutual Aid Services, are incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas and deal with specific areas of program work.

A number of institutions, such as hospitals, colleges, and a seminary, bear a functional relationship to the conference through the commissions. In some instances members of the boards of directors of these institutions are elected by the delegate body of the conference; this establishes a certain amount of control of these institutions on the part of the conference. Institutions recognized as "General Conference" institutions are listed under the board to which a particular institution relates functionally. These institutions, however, are not a part of the corporate structure of the General Conference Mennonite Church. They have their own corporate structures as set up under the statutes of the states in which they are located.

The addresses and telephone numbers listed below are those of the church. If the church has no phone, the number is that of the person listed with the church. The addresses and personal telephone numbers of ministers are found in the Directory of Ministers.

Churches not having a pastor as of August 1, 1968, are indicated by a symbol (%), and the person whose name and address appears with these churches is generally the chairman of the Board of Deacons.

The telephone number listed after the minister's name is his home number. Exceptions are cases where ministers were in the process of moving at the time this directory was in preparation, in which case the church address and telephone number are listed. The address and telephone number of the churches can be found in the Directory of Churches. For Canadian and South American ministers, names preceded by the symbol (†) indicate elders; and names preceded by the symbol () indicate retired ministers.

MENNONITE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Akron, Pa. 17501
Telephone: (717) 859-1151

MENNONITE CENTRAL COMMITTEE is a corporation registered in the state of Pennsylvania. Its primary function is a worldwide relief and service ministry, and its support comes from a number of Mennonite and related groups, one of which is the General Conference Mennonite Church. Four of the board members of said Committee are named by the General Conference Mennonite Church: two by the Board of Christian Service directly; and two by the Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Board of Christian Service. Also listed in this section are a number of organizations, some of which have their own corporate status, which are more or less related to the Mennonite Central Committee. The relationship of these to the General Conference Mennonite Church then is primarily functional in nature.

NOTE: In order to provide parallel reporting for both Canada and the United States, the following changes were made in compiling statistics for 1967:

- In previous years, MCC contributions in the Canadian Conference were included in the "District or Area Conference" column. In 1967 they are listed under "Christian Service" in the General Conference section.
- Previously, contributions for Canadian Mennonite Bible College in the Canadian Conference were included under the "District or Area Conference" column. In 1967 they are listed under "G. C. Institutions" in the General Conference section.
- As in former years, giving for provincial conference programs is included with the Canadian Conference in the "District or Area Conference" column.
